

NICOLE KOBAYASHI

Sacramento, CA | (916) 956-8307 | nikki.m.kobayashi@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Communication graduate applying for the Grant Life Cycle Specialist position. Research and coordination background covering the skills the role runs on: accurate data entry against a written protocol, document review, written correspondence, and communication with multiple parties at once. Trained in qualitative coding and inter-coder reliability testing at UC Santa Barbara, work that required accuracy of recorded data and consistency against a written protocol. Coordinated high-volume front-of-house operations at Din Tai Fung, managing competing priorities and an eight-person team during peak service. Proficient across Microsoft Office and Google Workspace. Bachelor of Arts, 2024.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Data Entry and Data Accuracy | Quality Control and Review | Protocol and SOP Adherence | Document Preparation and Review | Written Correspondence | Records and File Management | Stakeholder Communication | Facilitation and Team Coordination | Critical Thinking | Multitasking and Prioritization | Deadline Management | Microsoft Office Suite

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Communication | University of California, Santa Barbara

September 2022 to June 2024

Associate of Arts, Communication Studies | Santa Monica College

September 2019 to June 2022

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant | University of California, Santa Barbara

April 2024 to June 2024

- Applied a structured qualitative coding protocol to a film sample, recording categorical data on portrayals of Asian characters across genres and time periods for a faculty research project.
- Ran inter-coder reliability tests with a research team and refined the coding protocol where coders diverged, keeping the dataset consistent and reducing bias in the analysis.
- Documented coding decisions so a second reviewer could reproduce them.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Private Nanny | Sacramento, CA

October 2025 to Present

- Provide scheduled, independent childcare for two families (infant and toddler), managing daily routines with no direct supervision.
- Report daily to parents on schedules, needs, and incidents.

Assistant | Cat Mommy Cameras, Los Angeles, CA

July 2024 to September 2025

- Maintained the company's online inventory catalog, entering new product records and descriptions and keeping listings current against actual stock.
- Managed the Instagram account (@catmommycameras), writing copy and scheduling posts for a small-business audience.
- Staffed markets and pop-up events, handling booth setup, on-site inventory reconciliation, and direct customer service.

Hostess | Din Tai Fung, Century City, CA

April 2022 to August 2022

- Coordinated reservations and waitlists during peak service with wait times reaching 3.5 hours, communicating status to guests and resolving conflicts before they escalated.
- Directed and delegated to a team of eight, keeping seating flow and floor operations moving.
- Trained new hires on front-of-house procedures, supporting faster onboarding and stronger retention.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Microsoft Word | Microsoft Excel | Microsoft PowerPoint | Microsoft Outlook | Microsoft Office Suite | Google Workspace | Data Entry | Database Record Maintenance | Canva | Final Cut Pro | Procreate | Wix | Instagram Business